

REASONS TO CONSIDER

High Growth Potential

ETPMPM provides exposure to the metals used in many of our modern technologies, from the smartphones in our hands to solar panels powering buildings.

Targeted Exposure

ETPMPM is backed by physically allocated metal. Each physical bar is segregated, individually identified and allocated.

Simplified Access

In a single trade, ETPMPM delivers low-cost access to the physical bars of four precious metals via the stock exchange and avoids the need for investors to personally store the bullion.
